

The Christian Educational Consortium
331 South Birchwood Ave.
Louisville, KY 40206

Athletic Participation Covenant

Student Pledge

1. I pledge to think of others and model a Christian example of conduct to teammates, opponents, spectators, and coaches, faculty, and staff. I will personify sportsmanship in my competitive efforts.
2. I pledge to make sure my academic responsibilities are foremost.
3. I pledge to give my best effort each day at practice, during games, and in the classroom.
4. I pledge to serve as an example for my teammates through my diligent efforts and compliance with the coaches' wishes.
5. I pledge to be honest and straightforward in all my activities.
6. I also pledge the following:
 - To attend every game and practice except for academic ineligibility, sickness, family emergency, or bereavement.
 - To schedule a meeting with my coach if I should have a question about playing time or other issues regarding the team.
 - To help my teammates as they encounter problems including academic struggles. I will do my best to anticipate any internal team problems, and to be proactive in their solutions.
 - To be punctual to every game, every practice, and every team event.
(Punctual means 15 minutes early).
7. I pledge to read and abide by all policies and protocol in the CEC Athletic Handbook.

Parent Pledge

1. I pledge to fully support the CEC Academic Policy and to hold my child accountable (not teachers or coaches) should he/she become academic ineligible.
2. I pledge to support my child as a member of a CEC Athletic Team.
3. I pledge to support the coach, faculty, and staff of CEC.
4. I further pledge to require my child to meet with the coach to settle any grievances and to suspend my judgement or criticism so as not to undermine the player-coach relationship.
5. I pledge to attend as many games as possible as a spectator and supporter of my child and CEC.
6. I pledge to abide by good sportsmanship at all games.
7. I pledge to read and abide by all policies and protocol in the CEC Athletic Handbook.

Player _____

Date _____

Parent _____

Date _____

Parent _____

Date _____

Coach _____

Date _____